

Home Care Educational Videos for Staff Providing End of Life Care

ELDAC is your free guide to meeting palliative care needs for your home care clients. A free educational video series is available focusing on key aspects to improve your practice and systematic approach to palliative care and advance care planning.

The 6 modules in the video series accompany the resources available in the ELDAC Home Care Toolkit and include:

